

Call For Artists

Scratch It!

On 'Women, Health and Well-Being'

- Send application to hello@yoprocollective.com by Friday 7th July, 5pm
- Scratch It! date: Sunday 6th August 2017, 7pm-9pm
@ Rich Mix, 35-47 Bethnal Green Road, London E1 6LA
- This is an unpaid opportunity

This call-out is addressed to emerging artists aged 18-29 working with theatre or live art, and who are seeking feedback on a work related to 'Women, Health and Well-Being'.

WHAT IS 'SCRATCH'?

A Scratch is about sharing a piece of work with the public at an early stage of its development. It aims to provide participants with a chance to test out new ideas with the guarantee of constructive feedback.

Participants in this scratch will have 15 minutes to demonstrate their work before receiving both written and oral feedback from the audience.

We are looking for innovative and original works in theatre and/or live art. We welcome applications from anyone, regardless of background or education.

WHAT WILL YOU GET FROM PERFORMING AT SCRATCH IT!?

Participating in this Scratch will make you part of YoPro Collective's network of young creatives.

Artists from our previous Scratch Nights have then performed at Camden People's Theatre, Battersea Arts Centre, Bread and Roses Theatre, Forest Fringe and Rich Mix.

HOW TO APPLY?

Please answer the following points and send your application to hello@yoprocollective.com by 5pm on Friday 7th July 2017.

- What is the idea that you are exploring? (max. 100 words)
- What will be the format of the 15 minutes? (max. 50 words)
- What art mediums do you use? (eg. theatre/live art/screening etc)
- Why is it a good time to participate in this Scratch? (max. 100 words)
- What questions are you looking to answer by presenting this work?
- Do you have any special tech requirements?
- Please share any links or photos about your previous work

If you have any questions or concerns, feel free to contact:
